

Blue Christmas

Each year, a “Blue Christmas” Service is held at First Reformed. It offers people a chance for a quiet, meditative time to remember the birth of Christ, even at times when they may be struggling to sense the joy of the season. Maybe you have suffered a loss in your life, maybe circumstances are challenging, or maybe you just would like some time for reflection and thought – if so you are invited to come and join us for this gathering.