

Women's Fellowship 2010/2011

We will begin our year on Monday, Sept. 13 at 6:30 p.m. with a covered dish dinner in the fellowship hall. Our study this year is the Book of Luke. It is a video with related workbook by Dr. James Efird, an ordained Presbyterian pastor, Bible scholar and professor at Duke Divinity School. Efird's Bible studies are "warm, insightful and often humorous." Please see Paula P. or Nola B. ASAP to purchase a study book ($10). Please join us this year for study, fellowship, food and fun!
